Legal Advantage Announces Best Practices in Prior Art Search and Patent Illustration Seminars

Wednesday, June 24, 2009

Bethesda, MD – Legal Advantage LLC kicked off its summer CLE seminars last week with two Am Law 200 firms in Chicago and the Midwest. Legal Advantage will conduct over 20 CLE seminars for patent attorneys, patent agents and paralegals in California, Illinois, Maryland, Massachusetts, New York, New Jersey, Ohio, Pennsylvania, Texas, Virginia, Washington DC and Wisconsin. These seminars are designed to pass along the best practices in these two critical patent prosecution arenas.

“This reflects Legal Advantage’s relentless commitment to help attorneys and inventors make their lives easier,” said Hal Pieroway, Senior Director of Account Services. “Our clients constantly approach us on how to improve on their prior art search or their patent illustration and we thought we would share this with them.”

“How can IP professionals help to get their illustrations done in one draft instead of three? We show them with clear graphic examples. How can they maximize their search efforts? We demonstrate what can be done.”

“We are excited about these CLEs as it pushes us to spot light key learnings concepts and contribute to the continuing education” said Parvez Ahmed, Director of Account Services for Midwest and California.

“Already, we have had many participants that have shared with us that this is the most well prepared and helpful CLE presentation that they have ever attended.”

Legal Advantage will conduct four CLEs on the Web with:

Best Practices in Patent Illustration taking place on August 13th.

Best Practices in Prior Art Search taking place on September 9th.
