Legal Advantage Signs 1,000th Client

Sunday, May 15, 2009

First quarter of 2009 sees 14th consecutive quarter with over 20% growth for innovative intellectual property, litigation and legal support services firm

Bethesda, – Legal Advantage LLC announced today the signing of their 1,000th client. This astounding number represents a 100% growth over the firm’s client base in 2007 and the fourth consecutive year in a row in which the firm inked triple digit increases.

Directly attributable to the company’s commitment to add client value, respond to client needs and innovate at a relentless pace, Legal Advantage is poised to continue its impressive streak with the launch of new products and services in 2009.

A proven leader in the intellectual property patent prior art search, patent illustration and drawings, trial graphics and document review services, Legal Advantage has been providing critical support solutions to law firms, companies and inventors since 2003.

Industry leading turn around service, intensive training for their new hires and a dedicated staff has been responsible for fueling their success. Two years ago Legal Advantage launched prior art search services and document review services, these services were exceptionally well received offerings. The firm has now been working on new products and services ideally suited to intellectual property prosecutors and litigators manage their clients and cases.

With just over 1,000 clients on board, 2009 is sure to only raise the bar even higher for Legal Advantage. “We thank our clients for the trust they have placed in us . Today we service over 50 of the AmLaw 200 firms and 20 of the Fortune 500 companies. This growth is just an indicator of things to come,” Legal Advantage’s CEO Mirza Baig stated.

“With the knowledge and technology we have in place, our possibilities are immeasurable.” The staff is busily preparing for the summer and the new endeavors it will bring.
